

How to Make Money & Stay Out of Trouble—The Ethics of Practice

Know how the rules affect you and your practice

Run a thriving law practice with no ethical missteps. Whether you are a new or experienced attorney, this program gives you the essential tools to run a professional and successful law practice. A panel featuring a practitioner and counsel from the Office of Bar Counsel review the expectations and rules governing the ethical and responsible practice of law in Massachusetts. You learn the standards that represent the best traditions and highest aspirations of the legal profession as well as the best practices and procedures to make money while avoiding ethical mistakes. Take advantage of this opportunity to raise your practice to the next level of professional excellence.

Important Note: If you seek credit for this program to meet a requirement set forth by the Massachusetts Board of Bar Overseers, please be sure to register for the live webcast only and affirmatively select and click the tracking/attendance prompts throughout the program.
